COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Martin Meddaugh, in a state of despondency, cuts his Throat from Ear to Ear.

On Tuesday morning of this week Martin Meddaugh, a farmer living three miles east of this village, told his family he was going to the back part of the farm to cut wood. Nothing more was thought of the matter until about noon when his son came upon the body of the father about ten rods from the house lying upon the face. A shocking sight was discovered upon the body when turned. The head was nearly severed from the body. A large jack knife was found clinched in the bloody hands, which showed what means had been used to do the terrible deed. No cause is known for the action, unless despondency of mind.

Surprise Party and Farewell Visit.

Over forty members of the Order of Eastern Star met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Darcy last Friday night to make them a farewell visit before their departure for California. Brother and sister Darcy were charter members, Stella joining later. The Stars were armed with all the necessary equipments for a royal oyster feast and other good things. A jolly social crowd were there, and after enjoying the table bounties, and clearing the board, Harvey Tappan, in a very feeling speech, expressed the sorrow and regret of every member of the Order in view of their departure from amongst us, to take up their residence in a strange land, and in behalf of the Order presented Brother and Sister Darcy with a beautiful and tasty silver butter dish as a memento of friendship and fraternal good will.

What the Japs Have Given Us.

They have given us the beautiful light bamboo and wickerwork furniture, so cool, so restful and clean. In the summer especially it takes the place of our stuffy, dust catching and microbe spreading upholstered chairs and sofas. These heavy, clumsy articles are a weight on the eyesight and a burden to the mind compared to the light, graceful Japanese couches and drapery. The Japanese have taught us the priceless lesson of letting our sleeping rooms be as bare as possible of all but light and air. "Furniture," said a highly cultivated Japanese gentleman, "we have no furniture or house decorations such as you think necessary." We do not furnish our houses. The cheap and nasty decorations, so called, of pasteboard, paper or bits of silk, dusttraps one and all, find no place in a Japanese home. There are light beds, with just enough covering to keep one warm. There are bare, polished floors, with rugs, floors so exquisitely clean that a Japanese never enters the house with his shoes on. The Jap expresses his artistic soul outdoors in flowers and gardens.

To the Japs we owe the soft, comfortable flowing draperies that have indoors at least taken the place of our stiff, tight, uncomfortable dress. Even masculine apparel has felt to some extent the civilizing influence of Japan. Japan has given us evergreens, fruits and chestnuts far superior to our own. Finally, and if she had bestowed on us nothing else, we would be her debtor to the latest day—Japan has given us the chrysanthemum, now in bloom in all its yearly glory.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life." Was taken down with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We don't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at Grant Holden's Drug Store, Yale.

MONTAGUE, Mich., Nov. 13, 1893.

W. Windecknecht, a wealthy farmer of Muskegon Co., personally appeared before me, this day, and says: "That for the past year or so he was afflicted with weakness, trembling, heart failure, extreme nervousness and headache; that he consulted with physicians but received no benefit. He was persuaded by a friend to try a sample bottle of Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer, and he says the trembling and nervous feeling was immediately stopped by its use. Afterwards he used two bottles of the same medicine and says he is entirely cured." Signed, W. WINDECKNECHT. Sworn to and subscribed before me a Notary Public for Muskegon Co., State of Michigan. JAS. MORRISON. This medicine sold by Grant Holden, Yale.
